NEW AND FORTHCOMING WORKS.

LITERARY OPINION.

An Illustrated Review of English and Foreign Literature.

Price 3d. Monthly. Annual Subscription, including Christmas Number, Four Shillings, post free.

 The above amount includes the cost of Postage to the Continent of Europe, the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and most of the British Colonies.

The New Series of LITERARY OPINION was successfully inaugurated with the July number of 1891, containing a Special Portrait of Mrs. Humphry Ward, and Literary Intelligence from Australia and America, as well as from the Continent of Europe. The August number, with Portrait and Critical Memoir of Mr. Thomas Hardy and Mr. Rudyard Kipling, completely sold out on the day of publication, and a second edition was issued. The September number, with two Original Portraits and a Criticism of Mr. Robert Louis Stevenson, and many new features of general interest, has led to a large accession of annual subscribers, and a further increase in general circulation.

In addition to the Special Literary Intelligence from all parts of the English-speaking world, and the Reviews and Notices of the latest London publications, LITERARY OPINION contains regular Musical and Theatrical Articles by critics of recognised ability and standing.

Among the Contributors to LITERARY OPINION may be mentioned:—

Dr. ALEXANDER, Lord Bishop of Derry; Mr. J. M. BARRIE; MACKENZIE BELL; VERNON BLACKBURN; Dr. J. G. BOURINOT (Ottawa); Madame AUGUSTE COUVREUR ("Tasma"); S. E. DAWSON (Montreal); Sir CHARLES and LADY DILKE; CHARLES L. GRAVES; JOSEPH HATTON; Dr. ALEX. H. JAPP; MARTIN GRIFFIN (Canada); Mr. and Mrs. PATCHETT MARTIN; PHILIP MENNELL; Mrs. CAMPBELL PRAED; GEORGE R. PARKIN; GILBERT PARKER; J. ALMON RITCHIE (Canada); Mr. and Mrs. ST. LOE STRACHEY; Professor HERBERT A. STRONG; JOHN STUART; HENRY GYLES TURNER (Melbourne); A. M. TOPP (Melbourne); H. B. MARRIOTT WATSON; THEODORE WATTS; His Honour, Chief Justice WAY, D.C.L. (South Australia); and THOMAS WOOLNER, R.A.

BY JOSEPH HATTON.

The Princess Mazaroff: A Romance of the Day. 2 Vols., in Crown 8vo, cloth, 21s. [In the Press.

BY CLEMENT SCOTT AND CECIL HOWARD.

SWAN SONNENSCHEIN & CO.'S NEW BOOKS.

SECOND EDITION, THOROUGHLY REVISED AND EXTENDED TO ABOUT 50,000 BOOKS.
1,010 pages, 4to, cloth extra, with Exhaustive Authors and Subjects Indexes (110 pp).

THE BEST BOOKS: A Reader's Guide to the Choice of the Best available Books down to 1890, with the dates of the First and Last Editions, and the Price, Size, and Publisher's Name of each Book. Accompanied by numerous Characterisations, Biographical Notes, etc. By WILLIAM SWAN SONNENSCHEIN. 31s. 6d., net.

EXTRACTS FROM A FEW EARLY REVIEWS:

"The Second Edition is a distinct advance on its predecessor, and of its predecessor frequent use gave us a high opinion. It is a book which even a man of great learning may be glad to consult, and a man beginning to learn will find invaluable. The volume does Mr. Sonnenschein infinite credit, and proves him to possess a wide and sound knowledge of books."—Athenæum.

"Evinces a monumental industry."—The Times.

"We are not surprised at the success of the venture, which has been very great. It is simply of inestimable value."—Literary World.

"Not only librarians and students, but readers generally, owe Mr. Sonnenschein a debt of gratitude for providing them with a book conceived on such admirable lines and carried out with such conscientiousness and thoroughness."—Publishers' Circular.

"That any single man should undertake such a labour is wonderful enough, but much more wonderful is its triumphant accomplishment."—Anti-Jacobin.

"The arrangement deserves unqualified praise, for it is both admirable and ingenious. An index cannot be too prolix, and that which Mr. Sonnenschein has now provided is a marvel of industry and care."—Speaker.

"The amount of information is only less exemplary than its accuracy. There are few students and workers whose labours will not be lightened by a reference to its pages."—Notes and Queries.

"A comparison with the First Edition shows what a long and arduous labour the author has devoted to its development."—Globe.

"It will doubtless soon be in every-day consultation among bibliographers."—Scotsman.

☞ THIS EDITION IS STEREOTYPED THROUGHOUT and is now in its permanent form. SUPPLEMENTS bringing the work down to date will be published from time to time, as material accumulates.

EDITED BY PROFESSOR H. NETTLESHIP, M.A., AND DR. J. E. SANDYS.

DICTIONARY OF CLASSICAL ANTIQUITIES (MYTHOLOGY, RELIGION, LITERATURE, and ART). Adapted from the Work of Professor SEYFFERT. Over 450 Illustrations. 4to, double columns, 21s.; Presentation Edition, 22s. 6d.

The Times says:—"At once more concise and more comprehensive than the well-known Dictionary of Greek and Roman Antiquities which has so long held the field in this country, and is now re-appearing in a new and enlarged edition. For that very reason it will be more adapted to the requirements of certain classes of students, while its scholarly execution and its copious illustrations render it, within its limits, a formidable rival to Dr. W. Smith's volumes."

THE CONTEMPORARY PULPIT LIBRARY. Imp. 16mo, blue cloth extra, gilt tops. Each 2s. 6d.

SOCIAL SCIENCE SERIES.

"It would be fitting to close our remarks on this little work, 'The Principles of State Interference,' with a word of commendation of the publishers of so many useful volumes by Eminent Writers on questions of pressing interest to a large number of the community. We have now received and read a good number of the handbooks in this series, and can speak in the highest terms of them. They are written by men of considerable knowledge; they are concise; they give a fair estimate of the progress which recent discussion has added towards the solution of the pressing Social Questions of to-day, are well up to date, and are published at a price within the resources of the public to which they are likely to be of the most use."—Westminster Review, July, 1891.

NEWEST VOLUMES.

33. The Co-Operative Movement. BEATRICE POTTER. 2s. 6d.
"Without doubt the ablest and most philosophical analysis of the Co-Operative movement which has yet been produced."—Speaker.
34. Neighbourhood Guilds. Dr. STANTON COIT. 2s. 6d.
"A most suggestive little book to anyone interested in the social question."—Pall Mall Gazette.
35. Modern Humanists. Sociological Studies. J. M. ROBERTSON. 2s. 6d.
"Mr. Robertson's style is excellent—nay, even brilliant—and his purely literary criticisms bear the mark of much acumen."—Times.
36. Outlooks from the New Standpoint. E. BELFORT BAX. 2s. 6d.
37. Distributing Co-Operative Societies. Dr. L. PIZZAMIGLIO. 2s. 6d.
"Dr. Pizzamiglio has gathered together and grouped a wide array of facts and statistics, and they speak for themselves."—Speaker.

"There is a great deal of insincerity in the current excuse as to not buying such a work as this 'till it is finished.' For it is rather a collection of excellent monographs than an ordinary lexicon; and the importance of monographs, in any other case, would be at once admitted. So prevalent is the ignorance of our own language, that but few people can give the plain reasons why this dictionary is superior to all others; and there must be thousands who would buy it at once if they could only grasp this fact."—Professor SKEAT (Academy, Aug. 29).

NEW AND STANDARD WORKS.

 Complete Catalogue, comprising upwards of 3000 different works in all departments of literature, post free on application.

MR. OSCAR WILDE'S REMARKABLE NOVEL.—EDITION DE LUXE.

The Picture of Dorian Gray. By Oscar Wilde. An Edition de Luxe, fcap. 4to in size, printed on Van Gelder Hand-made Paper, and strictly limited to 250 Copies, each numbered and signed by the Author. Price on application.

Also, ORDINARY EDITION, crown 8vo, in artistic binding, 6s.

"With a subtle power it portrays the gilded paganism which has been staining these latter years of the Victorian epoch with horrors that carry us back to the worst incidents in the history of ancient Rome; and in the tragic picture of Dorian Gray's life, given up to sensuous pleasure, with its mingled culture and corruption, Mr. Wilde has performed a service to his age. As to the mechanism of the story, it is even more ingenious than the 'Dr. Jekyll,' of Mr. Louis Stevenson, and the novel is studded with brilliant epigram."—The Scottish Leader.

BY GEORGE MEREDITH.—ENTIRELY NEW EDITION.

The Tragic Comedians. A Study in a well-known Story. By George Meredith. A New Edition, Re-composed in new type and well printed on good paper. With a Photogravure Portrait of the Author, Two other Portraits Engraved on Wood, and an Introduction by Clement Shorter. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Every lover of Mr. Meredith's writings must wish to possess all his works in uniform style, and will, therefore, be pleased to hear of the entirely new edition of this remarkable novel. In 'The Tragic Comedians,' the author has chosen a smaller canvas than is his wont, and tells his story with unusual straightforwardness and directness; but the book is masterly in its delineation of character, as well as in the subtlety of its psychological analysis. It will be issued uniformly with Mr. Meredith's other volumes, and will contain an Introduction by Mr. Clement Shorter, as well as a fine reproduction of a recent and life-like portrait of the author.

From the Daily Telegraph.—"Deserves to be studied by all interested in the development of Africa and the suppression of the slave-trade. . . . . He has plenty to tell us of great interest concerning the habits, appearance, homes, and inter-tribal relations of the various races. . . . The illustrations are excellent."

New Light on Dark Africa. The Narrative of the German Emin Pasha Expedition. By Dr. Carl Peters, Commander of the Expedition. Translated by H. W. Dulcken, Ph.D. Beautifully illustrated with Original Full-page Plates and other Engravings, a Photogravure Portrait of Dr. Peters, and a large explanatory Coloured Map. Now ready, medium 8vo, cloth gilt, 608 pages, 16s.

From the Times.—"Dr. Peters has distinctly added to our knowledge of the Upper Tana and of the Chagga country, while all along he gives us many interesting sketches of the aspect of the region through which he passed, forming a welcome addition to our existing knowledge. . . . Most readable and instructive. . . . Full of interesting incidents and fresh information."

From the Times.—"We see no reason to reverse or qualify the judgment we expressed upon a former edition, that the 'Dictionary of Dates' is the most universal book of reference in a moderate compass that we know of in the English language."

Haydn's Dictionary of Dates. Relating to all Ages and Nations; for Universal Reference. Containing about 12,000 distinct Articles, and 120,000 Dates and Facts. Nineteenth Edition, Enlarged, Corrected, and Revised to the Summer of 1889, by Benjamin Vincent, Librarian of the Royal Institution of Great Britain. Medium 8vo, cloth, 18s.; half-calf, 24s.; full or tree-calf, 31s. 6d.

Splendidly Illustrated.—160 Steel Engravings.

Our National Cathedrals: Their History and Architecture, from the Earliest Records to the Present Time; with Special Accounts of Modern Restorations. With about 160 Steel Plates, Lithographic Ground Plans, and 150 Wood Engravings in the Text. In 3 crown 4to volumes, handsomely bound, half-paste-grain, parchment sides, gilt edges, 48s.; half-paste-grain, cloth sides, gilt top, 42s.

A cheaper edition of the above work can be had, in which the Steel Plates are replaced by Coloured Reproductions. In 3 volumes, cloth gilt, 31s. 6d.

"We have nothing but praise for the design and execution of this most interesting work."—Leeds Times.

"A book which all who love to hear or play the instrument will receive with acclamation."—Yorkshire Post.

The Science of the Hand; or, The Art of Recognising the Tendencies of the Human Mind by the Observation of the Formation of the Hands. Translated from the French of D'Arpentigny, and Edited, with a Commentary on the Text, copious Notes, etc., by Edward Heron-Allen, Author of "A Manual of Cheirosophy," etc. With Original Plates and Explanatory Diagrams by Miss Horsley. Imperial 16mo, parchment, bevelled, red edges, 7s. 6d.

"Undoubtedly curious . . . It is not necessary to subscribe to the author's theories in order to derive entertainment from its odd, out-of-the-way learning and anecdotal illustration."—Daily News.

THE BEST WORK ON CHEIROGNOMY AND CHEIROMANCY.

A Manual of Cheirosophy. A Complete Practical Handbook of Cheirognomy and Cheiromancy, whereby the Past, Present, and Future may be read in the Formation of the Hands. By Edward Heron-Allen. With Engravings. Imperial 16mo, parchment, red edges, 5s.

"The author is to be congratulated on having published a concise and clearly-written guide to the study of a subject no doubt interesting to many."—Saturday Review.

DEAN MILMAN'S GIBBON'S ROME.

Gibbon's Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire. With the late Dean Milman's copious and very valuable Notes; also Notes by Guizot, Wenck, and others; many pages of Engravings and Marginal References throughout. In 2 volumes, royal 8vo, cloth, 21s.; in 3 volumes, cloth gilt, 22s.; in 4 volumes, library style, cloth, gilt tops, 24s.; half-calf, 42s.

No other edition of Gibbon's great work can compare for cheapness and completeness with this. The whole of the text is given as written by the author; no word is changed, no line is omitted; at the same time, the reader has before him Dean Milman's copious notes, combating the author's scepticism in religious matters, while enriching the work by their literary and historical value. This edition also includes marginal notes, giving the essence of the narrative, and a large number of engravings, illustrating the manners and customs, etc., of the ancient Romans.

THE COMPLETE WORDSWORTH.

Wordsworth's Poetical Works. A New Edition, handsomely printed on the best paper, and nicely bound. In 6 volumes, crown 8vo, cloth, 30s.; half-calf, 42s.; THE CENTENARY EDITION, in 6 volumes, foolscap 8vo, cloth, 21s.; THE POCKET EDITION, 6 volumes, cloth, 15s.

The name of William Wordsworth is enshrined in the hearts of the English people, and no admirer of the English poets can dispense with his works. The present edition has the following signal advantages. It is complete, very carefully printed and prepared, and is, moreover, the authorised edition, published by arrangement with the family of the author.

LONDON: WARD, LOCK, BOWDEN & CO., SALISBURY SQUARE, E.C.

The very best Gift Book for Young Children.

THE ROSEBUD ANNUAL, 1892.

Nearly 300 Illustrations. Price Four Shillings.

This charming gift-book for the little folk of the nursery is now ready, and will be eagerly looked for by thousands of tiny toddlers, who are engaged in the difficulties of A B—ab, C A B—cab, etc., etc. The volume usually runs out of print in a very short while, so parents, uncles, aunts, and other relations will do well to secure their copies in good time.

THE ROSEBUD ANNUAL is bound in a handsome and attractive cloth case. Binding and paper are alike made to resist the wear and tear of the frequent handling the volume is sure to receive.

FRIEND OLIVIA. A Quaker Story of the Time of the Commonwealth. By AMELIA E. BARR. Price 6s.

Letter from the Quaker Poet, J. GREENLEAF WHITTIER.

Amesbury, Mass., November 12, 1890.

My dear Friend,—But for failing health and sight, which make even a brief note a painful effort, I should long ago have told thee how much I admire thy FRIEND OLIVIA. I read it as it appeared in "The Century," and marvelled at its admirable portraiture of the early Quakers and their times. As a Quaker, I heartily thank thee for it.

I shall read it again in book form, though my eyes do not allow me to use them much.

Let me tell thee that, though I do not read but sparingly any new literary works, I have read every book of thine with great interest. I congratulate thee on their great success, and am gratefully thy sincere friend,

JOHN G. WHITTIER.

THE CAVENDISH LIBRARY.

A Series of Standard Works in English Literature, printed on superfine paper and Uniformly bound in neat Library style.

"In the 'Cavendish Library' we have literature in every way such as it should be—the book not too heavy for the pocket, yet 500 pages of clear, readable type for a surprisingly small price the series; certainly deserves its success."—Liverpool Mercury.

Half-Hours with the Best Humorous American Authors. Selected and arranged by CHARLES MORRIS. With Steel Portraits. 2 Vols.

William Hazlitt, Essayist and Critic. Selections from his Writings. With a Memoir, Biographical and Critical. By ALEXANDER IRELAND, Author of "The Book-Lover's Enchiridion," "Memoir of Emerson," etc. With Steel Portrait.

"Mr. Ireland has spoken of their voluminous character as one reason for the want of popularity of Hazlitt's writings. We owe a debt of gratitude to him for this compact volume, whose pages seem overflowing with interest wherever we chance to open them. Such a brilliant array of samples should tempt the reader."—Spectator.

History of the War in the Peninsula, and in the South of France, from the year 1807 to the year 1814. By Major-General W. F. P. NAPIER, C.B. 6 Vols., with Notes, Steel Portrait, and 55 Maps and Plans.

Leigh Hunt as Poet and Essayist. Being the Choicest Passages from his Works. Selected and Edited, with a Biographical Introduction, by CHARLES KENT. With Steel Portrait.

"This memoir is both generous and discreet. Mr. Kent's feelings for the man is as clear as his admiration for the writer. He has, in short, written precisely as a friend should write, but as friends too rarely do write in these long-winded days; not a word too much, and yet omitting nothing which could show us the man at his best—a well-drawn, well-composed, genuine little piece of portraiture."—World.

Half-Hours with the Best American Authors. Selected and Edited by CHARLES MORRIS. In 4 Vols., containing Extracts from celebrated American Authors. With Steel Portrait.

The Life of Wesley, and the Rise and Progress of Methodism. By ROBERT SOUTHEY (Poet Laureate). Edited by the Rev. J. A. ATKINSON, M.A., D.C.L., Vicar of Bolton, Hon. Canon of Manchester. With Steel Portrait.

"A new volume of the admirable 'Cavendish Library,' with notes and preface. Its size is so convenient, the general get-up of the volume so good, that the issue may expect a wide welcome."—Record.

MR. J. M. BARRIE'S WORKS.

"Racy, humorous, delightful."

SIXTH EDITION.

Buckram, gilt top, crown 8vo, price 6s.

Auld Licht Idylls.

Spectator.—"At once the most successful, the most truly literary, and the most realistic attempt that has been made for years—if not for generations—to reproduce humble Scotch life."

Truth.—"It is sometime since I read anything so racy, humorous, and altogether delightful.

"This remarkable little book."

SEVENTH EDITION.

Buckram, gilt top, crown 8vo, price 6s.

A Window in Thrums.

Mrs. Oliphant in "Blackwood's Magazine" says:—"This remarkable little book. We follow the homely record with an interest which the most sensational drama could not surpass. No book could be more deeply instinct with the poetry of real feeling, in which no fiction is, though it requires something which can only be called genius to reveal it to the world."

"A very delightful book."

SECOND EDITION.

Buckram, gilt top, crown 8vo, price 6s.

My Lady Nicotine.

Speaker.—"A very delightful book. . . . Mr. Barrie is a charming and brilliant essayist; his fun is no ordinary fun; his habit of noticing small points of character is bewitching."

"The best one-volume novel of the year."

THIRD EDITION.

Buckram, gilt top, crown 8vo, price 6s.

When a Man's Single:

A TALE OF LITERARY LIFE.

Saturday Review.—"Mr. Barrie is a man with a style. From one end to the other the story is bright, cheerful, amusing—barring the idyllic prologue, which is pathetic as well as humorous.

Daily News.—"The best one-volume novel of the year."

London: HODDER & STOUGHTON, 27, Paternoster Row.

WORKS BY

Sir J. W. DAWSON, F.R.S.

Crown 8vo, price 9s., with Map and Illustrations.

1. Modern Science in Bible Lands.

SPECTATOR.—"Sir W. Dawson's manner of telling his facts and making clear his reasoning is charming; he has quite a master's art of imparting scientific knowledge to others. . . . It forms, as a whole, a guide to geological questions, and the knowledge of primitive man which no student of Bible lands or modern science should be without."

Ninth Edition. With Illustrations. 7s. 6d.

2. The Story of the Earth and Man.

SPECTATOR.—"A very able and interesting sketch of geological science."

Fifth Edition. Crown 8vo. 7s. 6d.

3. The Origin of the World, according to Revelation and Science.

Third Edition. With Illustrations. 7s. 6d.

4. Fossil Men and their Modern Representatives.

ATHENÆUM.—"It will be especially acceptable to those who refuse to accept the high estimate of man's antiquity which modern science has brought forth, for they will find here their case stated with much ability, and illustrated by a wealth of material drawn from sources not sufficiently known in this country."

London: HODDER & STOUGHTON, 27, Paternoster Row.

In One Handsome Volume, Royal 8vo. 30s.

The Industries of Japan.

Together with an Account of its Agriculture, Forestry, Mining, Arts, Trade, and Commerce.

By Professor J. J. REIN, University of Bonn.

Illustrated by Woodcuts, Lithographs, & Native Fabrics.

ATHENÆUM.—"By far the best book that has been written on modern Japan."

BY THE SAME AUTHOR.

Uniform in Size and Type. Second Edition. Price 25s.

Japan.

Travels and Researches undertaken at the Cost of the Prussian Government.

With Twenty Illustrations and Two Maps.

SPECTATOR.—"No existing work on Japan can pretend to vie with the present one in the fulness and accuracy with which the physiography, natural history, and topography of the country—subjects which Dr. Rein has made specially his own—are treated, and for a long time to come it must rank as the standard authority in such matters."

London: HODDER & STOUGHTON, 27, Paternoster Row.

CHATTO & WINDUS'S NEW BOOKS.

PERCY FITZGERALD'S NEW BOOK.—2 vols. demy 8vo, cloth extra, 24s.

LIFE OF JAMES BOSWELL. With an Account of his Sayings, Doings, and Writings. By PERCY FITZGERALD, M.A. With 4 Portraits.

RICHARD PRYCE'S NEW NOVEL.—2 vols. At all Libraries.

MISS MAXWELL'S AFFECTIONS. By RICHARD PRYCE, Author of "The Ugly Story of Miss Wetherby."

GRANT ALLEN'S NEW NOVEL.—3 vols. At all Libraries.

DUMARESQ'S DAUGHTER. By GRANT ALLEN, Author of "The Tents of Shem," etc.

NEW "PICCADILLY NOVELS." Crown 8vo, cloth extra, 3s. 6d. each.

TWO GIRLS ON A BARGE. By V. CECIL COTES. With 44 Illustrations by F. H. Townsend.

"A breezy and frolicsome narrative."—Times.

ARMOREL OF LYONESSE: A Romance of To-Day. By WALTER BESANT. With 12 Illustrations by Fred. Barnard.

"Mr. Besant has seldom, if ever, written a better or more interesting story. When we compare it with average fiction we feel almost inclined to fall down and worship the volume."—Speaker.

THE WONDERFUL ADVENTURES OF PHRA THE PHŒNICIAN. By EDWIN LESTER ARNOLD. With 12 Illustrations by H. M. Paget.

"Few who dip into Mr. Arnold's first chapter will put his volume down before they have read his last."—Guardian.

THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH: A Novel of Adventure. By ERASMUS DAWSON, M.B. With 2 Illustrations by Hume Nisbet.

"'The Fountain of Youth' is one of the ablest and most entertaining stories of adventure which has been published for a year or two past. The magic of the possible-impossible enhances its fascination."—Academy.

DAGONET'S NEW BOOK.—Crown 8vo, 1s.; cloth, 1s. 6d.

DAGONET DITTIES. By GEORGE R. SIMS, Author of "How the Poor Live," "The Dagonet Reciter," etc.

"The satirical humour, the playful extravagance, and the skilful knack of versifying which he brings to bear upon topics of the hour—political, social, judicial, clerical, and military—will afford abundant entertainment."—Daily News.

"LOOKING FORWARD."—Crown 8vo, cloth extra.

FREELAND: A Social Anticipation. By Dr. THEODOR HERTZKA. Translated by ARTHUR RANSOM.

"Dr. Hertzka is not, like most of those who have essayed this kind of imaginative literature, a mere spinner of ingenious fancies. As an economist and thinker of wide acquirements and great natural power he enjoys a Continental reputation. He has scientific reasons for the inspiring faith that is in him, and he sets them forth in his preface to 'Freeland' with a fulness of detail to which it is impossible for us to do justice in a brief note."—Echo.

OUIDA'S NEW STORIES.—In the press, square 8vo, cloth extra, 6s.

SANTA BARBARA, ETC. By OUIDA, Author of "Under Two Flags," etc.

AUTHOR'S NOTE.—"With the exception of 'Santa Barbara,' which was written for 'Les Lettres et les Arts,' all these stories are now printed and published for the first time."

LESSONS IN ART. By HUME NISBET. With 22 Illustrations. Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

"The author has endeavoured to write out some of the strictly necessary rules and laws of drawing and painting for the use of students, so that they may be able to work at home. . . . The book deals with drawing and painting in water and oil colour, and concludes with 'Hints on General Art.' . . . Art students will, no doubt, find the little work helpful, and the general reader may . . . dip into it with pleasure."—Pall Mall Gazette.

A NEW AFRICAN TRAVEL BOOK.—In the press, demy 8vo, cloth extra, 16s.

MY SECOND JOURNEY THROUGH EQUATORIAL AFRICA, from the Congo to the Zambesi, in the Years 1886 and 1887. By Major HERMANN VON WISSMANN. Translated by M. J. A. Bergmann. With a Map by F. S. Weller, and 92 Illustrations by R. Hellgrewe and Klein-Chevalier.

Small demy 8vo, cloth extra, 7s. 6d.

LIFE OF JANE WELSH CARLYLE. By Mrs. ALEXANDER IRELAND. With Portrait and Fac-simile Letter.

"This life of Mrs. Carlyle is a sweet and a sad story, told with all tenderness and sympathy. . . . The volume contains some letters never before published, but, even without these, it must be valuable to every reader, if only for its subtle and withal sympathetic analysis of character."—Daily News.

London: CHATTO & WINDUS, 214, Piccadilly, W.

VOL. VII. NOW READY.

CHAMBERS'S ENCYCLOPÆDIA.

A Dictionary of Universal Knowledge, with Maps and Wood Engravings. In 10 Vols., Imperial 8vo. Entirely New Edition. Vols. I., II., III., IV., V., VI., and VII. are now ready.

Price 10s. each, Cloth; 15s. each, Half-Morocco.

The Work is also being issued in Monthly Parts, price 1s. each.

Daily Chronicle.—"No subject of importance seems to have been omitted, and the space allotted to each is fairly proportioned to its magnitude, while the information is invariably brought up to a very recent date."

The Spectator.—"In every respect—in the literary quality of the articles, and in the care with which they have been edited—Vol. VI. is quite the equal of its predecessors."

N. B. Daily Mail.—"Wherever we have tested its accuracy we have found it almost absolutely without a flaw. The articles are admirably proportioned, the symmetry of the work being one of its most striking characteristics; and for the great bulk of readers it gives all the information that is likely to be required."

British Weekly.—"The work is maintained with unflagging spirit; no care, no pains, no expense have been spared, and the result is a book which it will not be easy to supersede. The articles throughout, and the whole work of editing, are most ably and conscientiously done."

W. & R. CHAMBERS, Limited, 47, Paternoster Row, LONDON; and EDINBURGH.

NEW WORK BY DR. MACLAREN.
